

2019 LEADERSHIP PROGRAM IN THE HOLY LAND

March 25-April 8, 2019 15 days

Host: The Reverend Dr. Mitri Raheb and Dar al Kalima University

Leaders: Mike Abel and John Lindner

This program offers new and creative ways to understand and respond to the context of the Israel/Palestine conflict. It raises the possibility of different strategies for resisting the power of empire and supporting those who both struggle against it and suffer its daily injustices and violence. This is an in-depth program during which new insights, experiences and strategies will be explored.

We invite pastors, church leaders, educators, and other professionals committed to the struggle for a just peace in Israel/Palestine to participate in this leadership experience. The aim of this program is to gain a deeper understanding of the current realities in Israel/Palestine as well as to view the Holy Land through a new, biblical/theological lens. This opportunity is open for people already interested in the region, who are committed to making a difference and investing in hope.

The program will explore the question: Where do we go from here on the journey toward peace, human rights and building bridges of understanding? The program will highlight the experience of courageous Palestinians attempting to build a future even in the face of occupation.

The Palestinian Christian community in the 2009 Kairos document sent out a cry to the Christian community abroad saying "Come and See." This invitation is even more urgent today, 51 years after the 1967 war. Come and see the facts on the ground, listen to diverse narratives, be inspired by ministries of hope, and consider future directions for advocacy and support. We hope you will join us for this ecumenical program of faith and learning.

CONDITIONS AND RESPONSIBILITY

Group Travel Directors (GTD) provides customized travel planning throughout the world for group travelers who have a variety of reasons and goals for travel. The goals and/or opinions of these groups do not reflect or imply the position of GTD in any matter. Brochure contents may not be duplicated without permission from GTD. In offering these travel arrangements, Group Travel Directors, Inc. (GTD) acts solely as an agent for the sale of air transportation and other travel related services. GTD maintains no control over the personnel, equipment or operations of any entity furnishing services, products or accommodations. GTD assumes no responsibility or liability for, and shall not be expected, asked or required to pay for any injury, damage, expense, personal injury, property damage, inconvenience or any other loss experienced by reason of: (1) any intentional, wrongful, negligent or unauthorized act or omission on the part of any supplier, its agents or employees; (2) any defect, breakdown or other failure of any vehicle, equipment, service, product or other instrumentality which is owned, operated or otherwise used by a supplier; (3) any intentional, wrongful, negligent, or unauthorized act or omission on the part of any other party not under the direct control of GTD; (4) financial problems causing nonperformance by any supplier; or (5) any other cause, condition or event whatsoever beyond the direct control of GTD. GTD cannot guarantee any rates, bookings or reservations of any supplier. Your retention of tickets, reservations or bookings after issuance shall constitute a consent to the foregoing provisions. All prices quoted are subject to change if airlines or ground operators increase their prices, the U.S. dollar is devalued significantly against foreign currencies, the group falls below minimum numbers, or a fuel surcharge, government tax or user's fee is imposed. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the owners at all times. GTD reserves the right to withdraw from any tour any tour member whose conduct is incompatible with the interests of the group as a whole. The above Conditions and Responsibility also covers the group leader(s) and their respective organizations.

NOTE TO OUR TRAVELERS:

Please be assured that GTD continually monitors travel industry developments (strikes, etc.) as well as world events. If any such matters affect your tour, you will be notified. About Our Host

Mitri Raheb and Dar al Kalima University

Rev. Dr. Mitri Raheb is President of Bright Stars of Bethlehem and founding President of Dar al-Kalima University of Arts and Culture in Bethlehem. He is the former Senior Pastor of Christmas Lutheran Church in Bethlehem and the most widely published Palestinian theologian to date with seventeen books including, The Cross in Contexts: Suffering and Redemption in Palestine and Faith in the Face of Empire: The Bible through Palestinian Eyes. As a civic leader and social entrepreneur, Dr. Raheb has founded numerous organizations, serves on many regional and international boards and has received a number of international awards. He is a sought-after speaker and has been featured on international media outlets including CBS, CNN, ABC, BBC, PBS, The Economist, Washington Post, Boston Globe, Newsweek, and 60 Minutes. Dr. Raheb holds a Doctorate in Theology from Philipps University of Marburg, Germany.

About Our Leaders

Mike Abel is a Palestinian-American who has worked in healthcare for most of her professional life. She has traveled to Israel, the West Bank and Gaza many times on peace and medical missions. In 2009, she was part of a diplomatic pilgrimage with the Council for the National Interest, visiting five Middle Eastern countries and Israel. In 2011, she spent three months on her own work-study program in Palestine/Israel. Currently, she is on the board for Delaware Churches for Middle East Peace. She is co-founder of Delawareans for Palestinian Human Rights and the recipient of the 2014 Peacemakers Among Us Award from Pacem in Terris. Through her advocacy work, she presents to a wide range of audiences, students, churches, and peace/ justice organizations on the current environment in Palestine and Israel. This is her third year with the Leadership Program.

John Lindner is retired as Associate Dean for External

Relations, Yale Divinity School. He spent over a quarter century providing leadership for international, ecumenical/ interfaith programs for the PCUSA, the National Council of Churches (NCCUSA) and the World

Council of Churches (WCC). He served as writer for the task force that produced the NCCUSA's Middle East Policy (1980). He first traveled to the Middle East in March 1974 and was an intern in Beirut with the Middle East Council of Churches in 1975. Over the years, he has traveled many times to the Middle East; served on the Leadership Council of Churches for Middle East Peace and was on the Board of A Different Future. Currently, he volunteers with Bright Stars of Bethlehem as co-coordinator of the annual Leadership Program and as editor of the blog: "Peace Doers... building a future in Palestine."

The program will be based in Bethlehem in comfortable accommodations in the Lutheran Guesthouse with many of the meals at the award winning Il'illiyeh Restaurant at the International Center of Bethlehem. The Leadership Program will include visits to various parts of the occupied West Bank of Palestine and to Jerusalem where the group will meet with outstanding religious, academic, business and political leaders for briefings and discussions. It is important to note that this program is organized in a travel seminar/program format, so opportunities for tourism will be limited. The price is based on a minimum of twenty-two travelers. In the event enrollment falls under the minimum, an increase of $100 per traveler will apply (with seventeen to twenty-one travelers). Speakers listed in the brochure have been invited, although the program is subject to change.
